The series of five games, to be played between the Norfolk and Portsmouth clubs for the Chapman & Jakeman cup, will begin to morrow, as will be seen by the following correspondence between the donors and the commit-ees representing the two clubs:

Nouvola, Va., September 14, 1895.

To the Members of the Norfolk and Portsmouth Baseball Clubs, Virginia'Sta'e League:

face shall be five games played, one game each day, beginning Monday. September 16, to be played alternately in the cities, the first game to be played in the latter city. In case of a tie, after the four games have been played, the grounds upon which the final game will be played to be decided by lot be tween the two captains of the clubs. The winning club shall receive 60 and the losing club 40 per cent, of the gross receipts of the series thereafter, to be equally divided respectively among the players of the two clubs. No player not under contract to the Norfolk and Portsmouth team at the close of the late championship series to be eligible to participate in the cup series. OHAPMAN & JAREMAN, NORVOLK, VA., Scytember 14, 1895. Messes, Chapman & Jakeman:

GENTLEMEN:-With high appreciation of the motives prompting your kind offer of this date, we hereby no cept your proposition to play for the Chapman & Jaksman cup, under the terms and conditions named, and respectfully request that you kimily take charge of the proceeds of each game, to be turned over to our respective managers at the end of the series in the proportion of 60 and 40 per cent. to the winning and losing teams. MRS. N. C. MILLED

Of Fort Wayne, Ind., writes on Nov. 29, 1864; "I was afflicted for forty years with heart trouble and suffered untold agony. I had weak, bungry spells, and my heart would palpitate so hard, the pain would be so acute and torturing, that I became so weak and nervous i could not sleep. I was treated by several physicians without relief and gave several physicians without relief and gave up ever being well again. About two years ago I commenced using Dr. Miles' Remedies. One bottle of the fleart Cure stopped all beart troubles and the Restorative Nervino did the rest, and now I sleep soundly and at-

Now that the season is over, let all the 'rooters' come together and for get the many bard things said while in the heat of passion and excitement.

The gold watch contest in Norfolk closed yesterday, Corcoran was presented with the 'ricker,' He will have something to always remind him of the esteem in which he was held in Norfolk as a hall player.

It will take the official announcement of Secretary Small to set at rest and settle for all time the differences existing between the newspapers in reference to the correct standing of the clubs, as well as to put an end to all discussion over the matter.

Next week the Lynchburg and Richmond teams will contest for honors.

Next week the Lynchburg and Richmond teams will contest for honors. As Mr. Green, of Roanoke, who of fered a cup, insists on the team playing one of the seven games in Roanoke, which would have to be done at a loss of money, Nowlan & Co. here are putting up a $150 cup which will be played for in lieu of the one offered by Mr. Green.

The Virginian wishes to say to its Richmond contemporaries, that it congratulates the Capital City on its victory, and in concluding the season, desires to state that it entertains the very best feelings toward Jake Wells. It admires his ability as a manager, and knows of no one better fitted to fill the position as manager of the "Bine Birds" than he. Baseball writers throughout the State have differed in several things, but they all now agree to try to put the management of the league upon a different basis next season and to get closer together for the seasons have a some months ago.

The Warwick county jail was broken on Friday night about 12 or 1 o'clock, which resulted in the escape of three prisoners—D. J. Stanley, who will be remembered as the burglar who broke in Dr. A. C. Jones' house a few months ago; Jas. Kilgroed, who was convicted for car breaking and stealing a lot of shoes, etc.; Luke Nelson for trespassing. They made their escape through the window of which the bars were weak, by the means of no iron, which they broke from the bath tub. Several other prisoners made their escape in a similar way some months ago.
